State of Illinois

Proposed Amendment To Add Section 8.1 To Article I (Crime Victim's Rights)

Explanation of Proposed Amendment YES

Article I of the 1970 Illinois Constitution is known as the "Bill of Rights." Currently, the Bill of Rights specifically guarantees the rights of accused persons in criminal prosecutions, but it does not provide any specific rights for the victims of crimes. This amendment will add Section 8.1 to the Bill of Rights to guarantee that victims of crimes have the right: NO

1. To fair treatment;
2. To be informed of court proceedings;
3. To confer with the prosecution;
4. To make a statement to the court at sentencing;
5. To receive information about the conviction, sentence, imprisonment and release of the accused;
6. To a timely disposition of the case following the arrest of the accused;
7. To be reasonably protected from the accused;
8. To be present at all court proceedings on the same basis as the accused, unless the victim's presence would materially affect the victim's testimony at trial;
9. To have an advocate or other support person present at all court proceedings;
10. To receive restitution.

For the proposed amendment to add Section 8.1 to Article I of the Constitution.

State of Illinois

Proposed Amendment To Section 1 of Article X (Education)

Explanation of Proposed Amendment YES

The Proposed Education amendment contains the following provisions: NO

1. The educational development of all persons to the limits of their capacities is a fundamental "right" instead of "goal."
2. It is the "paramount duty" of the State to:
 - (a) provide a thorough and efficient system of high quality public education, and
 - (b) guarantee equality of educational opportunity as a fundamental right.
3. The State has the "preponderant financial responsibility" for financing public education.

For the proposed amendment to Section 1 of Article X - Education- of the Constitution.
